Nominees Talk Here

Students Hear King and Matthews at Assembly Last Friday.

DISCUSS THE ISSUES

Speakers Review School Law and Discuss New Legislation to Aid In Educational Program.

Last Friday the students of the College had the opportunity of hearing speeches given by the two men who are candidates for State Superintendent of Education in Missouri. Lloyd King, the Democratic candidate, who has been superintendent of schools in Monroe City for the past fourteen years, spoke before the student assembly at 11 o'clock in the morning. He was followed in the early afternoon by Mr. Don Matthews, the Republican candidate, who has been superintendent of schools at Sullivan for the past twelve years. It had been planned to have both candidates speak at 11 o'clock, but Mr. Matthews was delayed by a road accident which prevented his arrival in time to speak at the scheduled hour. Both speakers were introduced by Mr. Bert Cooper of the College faculty.

Mr. King outlined the four things which he deemed essential to the progressive teacher. A good sense of humor, ability to maintain harmonious relations with the public, clearly apparent beauty of mind and philosophy, and a keen understanding of the philosophy which underlies our educational system. Mr. King believes that no teacher can be completely successful without these characteristics.

In regard to present day educational issues, Mr. King is in whole-hearted accord with the new school law, believes in a guidance program to fit students for their places in society, is in favor of some plan to retire teachers when they have reached a certain age, favors equal educational opportunities for all and a sound financial support for the entire school system from the kindergarten to the university.

Mr. Matthews also advocated specific points which he thought should be included in the state educational program. He stated that he is in favor of the Missouri Constitution and the state laws on education, but believes that certain additional steps should be taken for the improvement of the system. Among these are: Better system of financing the schools, teachers' retirement plan to care for those who have outlived their usefulness, improvement of services and teacher demonstration work in colleges, more salary for the now very low-paid county superintendents of education, organization of the schools for more efficient and economical operation, and partial elimination of politics from the office of State Superintendent by making it an appointive rather than an elective office.

Association Assembly

One hundred and twenty-four students took part in the associations' assembly program Wednesday morning. Miss Margaret Stephenson was in charge of the program, with Ford Bradley acting as master of ceremonies. While the students were assembling they were entertained by the new campus dance orchestra, the Peppers. The Green and White Peppers answered their announcement by a yell from the back of the auditorium, following which they marched to the stage and sang a pep song, "Onward Bearcats", and gave a second yell.

The Peppers were followed by George Walter Allen, for four years president of the Y. M. C. A., who gave a short talk on the history and activities of that organization.

Bradley then introduced the new Northwest Missourian editor, who gave a short talk on the policy of the paper and introduced the society editor, Jean Patrick, and the sports editor, Fritz Cronkite.

The curtain then opened upon

18 Aggies to St. Joseph

Eighteen students of Agriculture "41", accompanied by their instructor, Mr. R. A. Kinnaird, left Wednesday morning in four cars on a trip to St. Joseph.

The first place the class visited was the Swift Packing House, where they studied the meat carcasses of different quality for the purpose of learning to judge the quality of beef produced by animals of different ages, weight, and condition. Next they visited the Livestock Exchange Building and Stock Yards, to see what kind of livestock were in the large central markets. In the afternoon the class visited the 4-H Baby Beef Show.

Those making the trip are: Earl Bassett, Nora Batson, Edwin Bolin, Verne Campbell, Harold Daniels, Allan Hadley, Raymond Hammond, Lee Headrick, Donald Hepburn, Junior Lee, Paul Loch, William McCoy, Gaylord Morrison, Paul Scott, Russel Sherman, Harold Simms, Wayne Turner, Daryl Wagoner, and the instructor, Mr. R. A. Kinnaird.

Miss Nell Blackwell and Miss Lillian Blanchard of the Physical Education Department of the College and Miss Doris Logan, student and Miss Grace Westfall, post graduate student of the College, danced before Queen "Nocomo" at the Fall Festival, Thursday,

The 'How' of Coming

Students at State Teachers College Represent Many Different States

ONE FROM MANILLA

Graduates of M. S. T. A. Influence Many to the Alma Mater—Relatives Also Potent Force.

Relatives have been the main cause for students coming from distant points to Northwest Missouri State Teachers College. Marceline Cooper, a senior, came from Denver, Colorado, due to the influence of her uncle, A. H. Cooper of the College faculty, department of education. Marjory Nelson, who attended her first year of college at Warrensburg, her mother's alma mater, is also from Colorado—Eads is the city. One of the causes for her coming to Maryville from Warrensburg was her uncle, who lives near here. Lansford, North Dakota, has three representatives now in attendance here. R. T. Sidner, a freshman, came from North Dakota due to the influence of his mother, who is a former resident of Maryville. Mrs. Sidner's maiden name was Helen Helphy. The name of Keefe has become well known on the

The Annual Walk Out

The annual Walkout Day at the College was held Thursday, October 4th.

The bugle blast announcing the event came as a surprise to the students, most of whom were not expecting the event to occur until some day next week, since the plans for the occasion had apparently not yet been completed. The committee in charge functioned with more than average efficiency and secrecy and consequently was able agreeably to surprise the student body.

Immediately after the bugle blast the students gathered in the auditorium to receive directions for procedure from Kurby Boward, president of the senior class and chairman of the Walkout Day committee. Following the instructions, Fritz Cronkite, Harold Bird, Tucker Phelps and other husky upperclassmen, massed the freshmen in a body and supervised their march to the Missouri theater. There they were lined up in the street and given expert advice to such important matters as effective group singing and the correct way to "button".

After the street exercises were over the freshmen were allowed to enter the theater at a discreet distance from the upperclassmen, who preceded them.

Inside the theater a number of students were called to the stage and introduced to the assembly. These included the freshman members of the football squad, and the pledges of Sigma Mu Delta, Sigma Sigma Sigma, Alpha Sigma Alpha and Sigma Tau Gamma.

After the motion picture show, which followed the introductions, the freshmen were again massed in a body and marched to the Country Club for the midday lunch provided by the committee. With the assistance of the Home Economics department, a lunch of weiners, buns, pickles, doughnuts, potato chips, apples, coffee and ice cream was served to the student body.

In the afternoon a free dance was held in the west library of the College.

Dad's Day October 26

Friday, Oct. 26, is to be Dad's Day at the College this year. The committee in charge met Wednesday afternoon and set the date when Dads of students are to be honored.

Write and invite your Dad today. Tell him that registration is at 9 o'clock in the morning and after that he can visit your classes. After such a morning he may not be quite so insistent that all your grades be "E's".

At 11 o'clock there is to be a special assembly program in honor of Dads.

Then at 12:30 comes the luncheon at Residence Hall. Reservations for the luncheon must be made by Monday, Oct. 22. There is to be special entertainment in the afternoon, and Dads can again visit classes.

Then your Dad is to your guest for dinner, and after that comes the big football game with Cape Girardeau.

So write that letter to your Dad, and forbear this once mentioning your financial embarrassment.

Bearcats Play Peru

Annual Contest With Nebraskans Will Be Staged Tonight.

REVENGE IS SOUGHT

Bearcats Determined to Even Score With Rivals Who Took Long End of 20-0 Last Year

Coach E. A. Davis, with Assistant Coach Wilbur Stalcup, left for Peru, Nebraska, this morning with the Bearcat gridders to engage in the annual Maryville-Peru football game tonight.

Advance information concerning the Bobcats reveals that eleven letter men have returned to the Nebraska Teachers College. A number of lettermen did not return, according to Coach Gilkeson, who has about thirty-five aspirants reporting for practice daily. Peru finished in third place in their Nebraska conference last year.

In last season's conflict here at Maryville the Bearcats were defeated 20 to 0.

Carmichael, Peru fullback, was the big show last year. Tipping the scales at 210 pounds, he was able to gain consistently. Reports from the Bobcat athletic department place him at an end position in this year's starting lineup.

There was an uncertainty early in the week as to who would make the trip in addition to those players that saw service against Nebraska Wesleyan.

At present there are no major casualties and the Bearcats are expected to be in good shape to go out and get their revenge for last year's drubbing. Rivalry has grown greatly and the sentiment points to a second victory by the Bearcats in as many starts this season.

The probable starting lineups are: Peru—Ends—Peek and Carmichael, tackles—Lu and Lewis, guards—Ethington and Harphom, center—Punches, halfbacks—Riggs and Story, quarterback—Miller, fullback—Token.

Maryville—ends—Hicks, Dickinson or Zuchowski, tackles—Cronkite, Richards or Boatwright, guards—Sullivan, Morrow or Rouse, center—Palumbo or Palm, quarterback—Stigall or Benson, fullback—Jones or Farrar, halfbacks—Yates, Good, Rulon or Borgmier.

First Band Appearance

The College Band, under the direction of Mr. Gailiewicz of the Music department, made its first public appearance between the halves of the Maryville-Wesleyan game last Friday night. The program was a series of marching maneuvers executed in mid-field and ending in front of the student bleachers. Each member wore a green and white uniform especially purchased for use in the organization.

The director is planning some exhibitions of letter formation to be given between the halves of other games this fall.

Bearcats Win First

Take Long End of 7-3 Score in Initial Game of the Season.

FINE TEAM WORK

Outstanding Feature of Home Players is Coordination of Effort. Nebraska Twins Star

Smooth working offense and alert defense enabled the fighting Bearcat team to emerge victorious over the Nebraska Wesleyan Preachers Friday night by the score 7 to 3. Glance at the compilation of statistics shows that the Bearcats were superior to their opponents in every department of the game.

Maryville's forward wall crushed the Nebraskans' front barrier to the tune of eleven first downs. The Preachers were held to two first downs, gaining one on a successful forward pass. From scrimmage the Bearcats gained 242 yards, a distance of nearly five times as great as that covered by their opponents.

The visitors' only real threat came in the third quarter when Joe Benson, Maryville signal-caller, fumbled a slippery punted ball. The recovery was made by a Wesleyan and a quick pass well executed placed the ball on the Maryville 5-yard line. After three unsuccessful thrusts at the Maryville line, the visitors decided to try for three points from placement. From the 12-yard line, Bosley kicked a perfect field goal.

With a "never-say-die" determination, the Bearcats kept up an unusually large amount of fight and little time had elapsed before the visiting team began to realize the Bearcats really meant business and were out to score.

On three occasions the home team seemed sure to score, but bad breaks and a sticky gridiron prohibited a larger score.

It would be extremely difficult to acknowledge any superior playing by certain players. The Bearcat team was working as one complete machine. If such feeling exists on the team for the remainder of the season, the Bearcats will be mighty hard to beat. Such determination and fight has not been known since Coach E. A. Davis produced his last championship team.

The end play of Ron Shuman and Rod Shuman, twins, on the Nebraska team, was outstanding. A brother of these two boys played in the backfield.

A play-by-play description of the game was broadcast to the spectators over a public speaking system by Stephen LaMar, assisted by Herbert Dieterich and Jimmy Smith.

Maryville—Position—Wesleyan Dickinson—LE—Ron Shuman Richards—LT—Johnson Sullivan—LG—Wright Palumbo—C—Critchfield Morrow—RG—Edwards Cronkite—RT—Maynard Hicks—RE—Rod Shuman Benson—QB—Hawkins Stigall—RH—Seyler Yates—LH—Somerhalder Jones—FB—C. Shuman.

Substitutions: Zuchowski for Hicks, Rouse for Morrow, Palm for Rouse, Francis for Zuchowski, Good for Stigall, Morrow for Palm, Rulon for Good, Good for Benson, Benson for Stigall, Rouse for Morrow, Palm for Sullivan, Boatwright for Palm, Zuchowski for Hicks, Morrow for Cronkite, Sullivan for Rouse.

Wesleyan: Bailey for C. Shuman, Smith for Wright, Fansted for Shuman, Otto for Hawkins, Lettham for Shuman, Larsen for Maynard, Brasch for Edwards, Bosley for Somerhalder, Bosley for Seyler, Smith for Wright.

Punts—MSTC, 12 for 37½ yard average; Neb. Wes., 16 for 33½ yard average. Passes completed—MSTC, 4 for 47 yards gain; Neb. Wes., 5 for 25 yards gain. Attempted passes—MSTC, 11; Neb. Wes., 11. Passes intercepted—MSTC 0; Neb. Wes., 3; Yards gained from scrimmage—MSTC, 242; Neb. Wes., 56; Yards lost from scrimmage—MSTC, 58; Neb. Wes., 24; First downs—MSTC, 11; Neb. Wes., 2.

NOTES ON THE GAME

Buford Jones has taken up weight lifting; he carried three men across the goal line with him.

Fred Dickinson was in almost every play, and certainly did a good job on his end of the line.

The Shuman family was well represented on the Nebraska Wesleyan team, Rod and Ron, twin brothers, played the end positions in a style that was well worth watching, while C. Shuman, another brother, did a good job of backing up the line.

"Bob" Tracy was not in uniform for the game due to an injury received in practice last week.

The Bearcats blocked two punts, and recovered the ball both times. Let's hope there will be more instances of the same kind.

"Red" Good, freshman half-back, showed his heels to the Nebraskans several times when returning long punts. He reminds us of Ted Hodgkinson, who used to trip around on the gridiron several years ago for the Bearcats.

Let's Beat Peru!

Teachers In Training for Nursery School

Miss Amber Herriman of Mound City and Miss Velma Cass of Shenandoah, Iowa, both students of the College who have been attending the Nursery Training School in Kansas City during the last two weeks, spent last weekend in Maryville.

The girls are preparing to be assistants to Mrs. C. James Velie, who is to have charge of the newly organized Nursery School in Maryville. Miss Thelma Reimer, a Maryville nurse, is also to be connected with the school. She also has been attending the Kansas City School.

At the present time twenty-eight children have been enrolled in the Maryville Nursery School, which is to be located at the Legion Hall, and which will have hours from 8 o'clock in the morning to 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Maryville instructors left for Kansas City Monday afternoon to attend the last two weeks of the training course. Members of the party can be reached at 3409 Benton Boulevard.

All Westboro Teachers Former S.T.C. Students

Dorothy Babb, who received the Bachelor of Science degree in 1934, with a major in Fine Arts, visited the College Saturday, September 29. This makes the third year Miss Babb has taught the seventh and eighth grades at Westboro. She has two art classes in the High School, with twenty students in each class.

All the teachers at Westboro have attended school at the College. Mrs. Kahla Ford teaches music, speech, and English; Miss Naomi Braylia teaches the first and second grades; Miss Gladys Story, science and home planning; Miss Evelyn Wiley, commerce and English; Miss Allie Field, third and fourth grades; Miss Mary Carlson, fifth and sixth grades. Mr. Cecil Smith is coach of athletics and Mr. LeRoy Nelson is superintendent of schools.

Pep Rally for First Game Thursday Night

Under the guidance of Louis Groh, head cheer leader, and his assistants, "Chub" Yates and "Andy" Campbell, the Maryville Bearcats were sent off in a big way to their game with the Wesleyans at the pep rally staged on Main Street at 7:30, Thursday night before the big game the following night. Speakers were Coach E. A. Davis, Mr. Joseph Kelly, of the Speech department, Bill Smith, and Fred Lewis. Music was furnished by the College Band under the baton of Mr. Gailiewicz. Vivid Word Picture of Desperate Duel-to-Death Fight Between Man and Beast

By DENSIL COOPER

Students who study in the library are both amazed and impressed at the vigor and physical stamina of the library flies. Their health clearly emphasizes the effects of cultural and intellectual living. Their literary environment and their liberal heritage from ancestors who have lived in the same environment since 1907 have beyond doubt produced some unusual specimens.

Fly fighting has become the major library pastime since the Law of Segregation of the Sexes was enacted.

Yesterday as I sat in the library "musing over many a volume of forgotten lore" my attention was attracted to a most extraordinary conflict. That of a beast with a man; that of a large, brawny, and well trained beast with an intelligent, scientific, skillful homo sapien. The battle raged. Human life was in the balance. Any mis-cue meant certain death; any slip spelled unavoidable fatality. Fans in the balcony clung to the rails. Men shouted. Babies cried; mothers clutched their little ones to their breasts and shrieked insanely. The beast brutally mauled the man. The man retaliated by inflicting deep knife wounds. Thus the battle ensued, but to avoid tiring you with the details of the long fight I submit the following results regarding the belligerents: Kenneth Manifold, ex-president of the Freshman Class and Spanish-Iowa matador, was the victor and a library fly the vanquished. Man had conquered; brute force had bowed to the mind and skill of man.

Pallbearers were summoned and the dead body, bloody and mutilated, was laid away in a secluded place over by one of the dictionaries, without words, benefit of funeral rites, or military honors.

Jimmy (Bring 'em back alive) Nash, though he must be a little cruel and hard hearted, has clearly demonstrated the practical side of extra-curricular activities. Entangling these monstrous flies is a sport to him second only to capturing live lions in the jungles of Africa. He says the flies are larger and more active but not so ferocious and treacherous as the jungle bred "king of beasts". Keep it up, Jimmy. We need more students with a sense of responsibility for their fellow students.

John Hopple even becomes so radical as to say: "They ought take the privilege of usin' the library away from them (badword) flies". Well, John, what do you think about expelling them from school? John says:

"They tuk the American Continent away from the Indians on account of how they wasn't using it to their best advantage, and we should take the library away from the flies on the same grounds".

But if you want a real substantial, "dyed in the wool" program on this fly business, consult the freshmen. They say, "Determine the mortality rate and the birth rate of the race and then calculate by calculus how much but-toning would have to be introduced to increase the death rate to infinity."

Insurance companies, always wide awake and alert, notified their agents that after Oct. 1st all policies written for college library student employees will not allow benefits for death or injury, while they are thus employed; the risks being too great. Why not have Sheriff Wallace appoint Francis Segesman as a deputy or get him fixed up as a sergeant at arms, or something; his life insurance isn't any good anyhow.

Fellow students, man's high state of civilization, fostered and developed by our venerable ancestors, is direly threatened by the menace of this horde of voracious monsters. Unless drastic preventive measures are taken immediately, the "downfall of civilization" is inevitable. Therefore, we as the preservers of all that is high and worthy, must bend every effort toward extermination of these pests, though a supreme sacrifice must be made.

Alfred Sutton of St. Joseph visited in Maryville Sunday and Monday.

Half Hour of Music Weekly at Social Hall

The Music Department of the College is presenting a half hour of music in Social Hall each Tuesday evening from 7:15 to 7:45. The program will be sponsored by the Alpha Epsilon Psi, music fraternity.

In order to appreciate music, it is necessary to hear music and these short programs are being given for the cultural development of the student body.

Students and faculty are invited to attend these programs, and, should they be able to remain only for part of the program, they may leave between numbers.

These programs will be presented by the faculty and students of the Music Department. At various times, programs of orthophonic recordings will be given. At the first program, Tuesday evening, October 9, Mr. Velie will present a short lecture recital on "Spring and Autumn", playing the following numbers: "Spring Song", Grieg; "To Spring", Grieg; "Autumn", MacDowell; "Autumn", Chaminade.

AS ABE SEES IT

To those who cannot see all they wish to see, hear all they wish to hear, and know all they wish to know, we dedicate this column. May it be the means to show these people that some people are bigger fools than they seem to be or seem to be bigger fools than they are.

What would this school be without someone proficient in baby talk? Last year we had on our campus one well versed in this art, but with her graduation it looked as though we were going to have to do without until, who should appear but Nellie Zimmerman, with the announcement that she had been working hard all summer trying to develop this art peculiar to the campus of M. S. T. C. Luck to you, Zimmerman, but I am warning you that J. B. Cummins is not a very good man to practice on.

Evidently the New Deal has had its effect upon our campus, as several couples are having their share of experimentation, i. e., to quote, e. g., Marr-Logan, Green-Wooderson, Glauser-Zellar, Borgmier-Planck, Cummins-Zimmerman, and Dalbey-Rush.

In spite of "Bill" Person's unique announcement in the Book Store relative to his ability to satisfy the lonely hearts, there are some who are too bashful to avail themselves of this service and have requested us to place their names on the list of eligibles: (All boys not connected with the Person agency, take note.) Lucy Mae Benson, Nelle Kellogg, Frances Tolbert, Mary Peck, Dixon Campbell, Marjorie Goode, Mary Lucile Powell, Marian Maloy, Helen Leet, and Bernice Lynch. Any other young co-ed wishing to have her name placed in this column kindly hand your name to our Editor (who has been playing around himself lately).

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT (C. O. D. Service)

Mr. Daniel Blood, bookstore magnate, wishes to announce thru this column the fact that he is now comfortably located at his new home, 110½ E. 3rd St. All friends of Mr. Blood desiring to drop in for a chat and a bite to eat will always be welcome. You will find him at home between 5 and 6 and 7 and 11 p. m. most any evening. Special appointment may be made by seeing Blood in the bookstore. (If you want to eat at Blood's expense this is very necessary).

FLOTSAN and JETSAM—What else did Velma Cass pick up in Kansas City besides a few children? . . . It is reliably reported that Paul Newby, that tall boy from Plattsburg, is considering dropping his extra-curricular activity at 4 every afternoon. Paul says it is not only expensive but the hours don't count toward his Major . . . It looks to this writer as though the freshmen this year are being treated like post-graduates instead of like freshmen. How about your honor, you upperclassmen? . . . Much entertainment is being derived these evenings by those believers in the fact that for two cents a comfortable evening can be spent . . . The astronomy class had an extra member the other night when they went to study the stars. Frank Boyer asked Miss Helwig in class if he might take his girl and, sure enough, Frank showed up with her on his arm . . . There is a contest being run between James Nash and John Noblet in the boys' smoker every day. The latest report showed Nash leading by four . . . Zakoura is already preparing to celebrate his birthday, which takes place late this quarter. Hump Russell says he is going to help Zach celebrate . . . Ask "Tucker" Phelps what he thinks a bulk is worth. He told several seniors the other day but they did not catch the answer.

KNO MOORE, D. O. S.

Dope Bucket

Warrensburg defeated Baker for a second successive win in as many starts. A blocked punt and a pass put the Mules in scoring position, and Patterson lugged the ball over on the third line plunge. Baker was never deep into Warrensburg territory.

Pittsburg Teachers College seems to be getting the winning habit early in the season. Last Friday the Pittsburg Teachers romped over the Tahlequah, Okla., Teachers to the tune of 25 to 0. However that habit will be hard to maintain when Pittsburg meets Washburn College of Topeka, Kan., tomorrow in the first Central Conference game.

The Kirksville Bulldogs won their season opener with Simpson College at Indianola, Iowa, Friday, Sept. 28, with a score of 7 to 0. Kirksville's score came late in the third quarter after a long pass, Embrie to Hanna. Moody accounted for the extra point by an end run.

Trying for a third successive win, the Warrensburg Mules will battle Central College at Fayette today. In their two previous starts the Mules have won by scores of 20 to 0 and 6 to 0.

The Bulldogs of Kirksville will tangle with the Rolla Miners today. The Bearcats are watching to see which is the victor, because both teams are late season opponents of the Maryville team.

Coach Stuber's Cape Girardeau Indians opened their football season with a 13 to 0 victory over Carthage (Ill.) College Friday, Sept. 28. Walter Metje, freshman halfback, scored both touchdowns, one on a long run from midfield in the second period, and the second late in the fourth period from the three-yard marker.

The little Arkansas College of Batesville, Arkansas, outplayed the Springfield Teachers College in their first game. The Arkansas team was deep into the eBars territory twice, but failed to score. Springfield was never inside Arkansas college's 35-yard line.

The Cape Girardeau Indians will battle with the Carbondale Teachers from Illinois today. Carbondale is one of Cape's deadly enemies, and each year these two teams stage a battle for supremacy.

Hoping to make a better showing this week, the Springfield Teachers will play Tahlequah, Okla., Teachers today. Last week the Bears were just out of hibernation, which accounts for their being still a bit stiff and sleepy.

The Springfield Bears lost the services of one of their best ends, when Spradling, letter end, received a broken collar bone in the Arkansas College game last Friday.

The Bearcats' next game will be with Rockhurst College of Kansas City. So far we have heard nothing concerning the Rockhurst team, except that they open their season today, in a game with Baker College. So, stand by until we look further concerning our next home opponent.

Joe Benson, Bearcat quarterback, received a very painful injury in the Nebraska-Wesleyan game when he had two ribs pulled loose from the cartilage.

The Peru Bobcats have done some shifting in their lineup this year. Carmichael, last year's fullback, is playing on an end this year. We hope he is not as good an end as he was a fullback. Last year the Bearcats considered Carmichael the best fullback they played against during the entire season.

Recreational Art

Have you seen the new artists' model? Or the artist's new models? There was one over in the barn on the college farm. "Old Dolly," or "Joe"—anyway—the horse with the Roman nose. And the celebrated white birches "stood" for a sketch one day last week.

It's all because of the new class in Recreational Art now being offered by Miss Olive S. DeLuce, chairman of the department of Fine and Industrial Arts. The course carries activity credit, and is open to all students interested in the subject. Like chorus, dramatics, or journalism—three-quarters work completed carries 1.25 or 2.5 hours credit according to the amount of time devoted to the subject. Recreational Art is required for majors and minors in Fine Arts.

This quarter the group meets at 1 o'clock on Tuesdays. While weather permits the students are working out of doors.

College High

Mr. H. R. Dieterich, College High School head, and Lawrence (Tucker) Phelps of Cameron traveled to Savannah, to referee a football game Monday, October 1. The score was Savannah 7-Mound City 6.

Haley Kiser of Clyde is conducting a noon activity period, during which time football, speedball, wrestling, pingpong, kittenball and other sports are to be played. At present there are about thirty boys reporting. Travis Wyatt and Joe Mitchell are the captains of the two teams now formed.

Mary Elizabeth Mendenhall, a College High student, was an attendant of Miss Irene Jones, Nodaway County Fall Fair Queen.

The Beta chapter of the Alpha Phi Sigma held its first meeting Tuesday, September 25th in Room 103. The following officers were elected: Jonan Haskell, secretary; and Densil Cooper, treasurer. The other two offices had been filled last spring.

The meeting was held to introduce the following prospective members to the organization: Marjorie Eppard, Stanley Gex, Virgil Gex, Corlie Jackson, La Vena Kabel, Catherine Keefe, Dorothy Murphy, Anna Katherine Overlay, Mary Peck, Fred Tyson, and Ruth Woodruff.

The Alpha Phi Sigma asks of its members a reasonable amount of participation in extra-curricular activities and a willingness to help keep the morale of the school at its highest possible level.

Knights In Meet Here

Hickory Stick Members Dine and Listen to Speakers Friday Night

Seventy-two of the one hundred and forty-three Northwest Missouri educators who attended the Knights of the Hickory Sticks dinner at the Methodist Church in Maryville, last Friday night, attended the Bearcat-Nebraska Wesleyan football game, after the dinner.

Chief speakers at the dinner were the two candidates for state superintendent of schools, Don Matthews of Sullivan and Lloyd King of Monroe City, both of whom spoke in special assemblies at the College during the day.

Officers for 1934-1935 elected at the meeting are: S. W. Skelton, superintendent of schools at Oregon, president; Cecil Jenkins, county superintendent of schools of Andrew County, vice-president; and Stephen G. LaMar, director of Information at the College, secretary-treasurer. The retiring officers are: B. B. Cramer, superintendent of schools, Smithville, president; H. S. Thomas, principal of High School, Maryville; and L. G. Somerville.

Lewis A. Wickens, superintendent of schools at Osborn, addressed the group briefly concerning debate in high schools and urged all schools to take part in the debate contest. He mentioned that the schools would have until October 31 to enroll in the league.

In the absence of Fred Keller, superintendent of schools at Tarkie and president of the Teachers Credit Union, John W. Edie, county superintendent of schools of DeKalb County, reported that the Credit Union has loaned $991.23 to teachers, and urged that every teacher buy at least one $5 share in the Union.

E. M. Carter of Columbia, secretary of the Missouri State Teachers Association, said that the Maryville and Warrensburg teachers college districts are heading the list for first place in the number of teachers enrolled in the state organization. Mr. Carter also complimented the Northwest Missouri educators on the successful functioning of the Credit Union and expressed the hope that other districts would pattern after this district in that respect. He expressed the belief also that there is a good opportunity for the teachers retirement fund amendment to carry in the next session of the legislature.

Music for the meeting was provided by members of the College Conservatory of Music faculty, and included a violin solo by Alphonse Gailiewicz, and a vocal solo by H. N. Schuster, tenor. Mr. C. James Velie, chairman of the Department of Music at the College, played the piano accompaniments.

Band and Chorus

Mr. C. James Velie, director of the Conservatory of Music, and chorus director, last week appointed the following to act as a nominating committee of officers for the college chorus: Eldon Thompson, Clarinda, Iowa; Robert Lawrence, Maryville; Edna Mary Monk, Maryville; and Otha Jennings, Stanberry. This committee selected the following candidates: Robert Lawrence, Maryville; Helen Gaugh, vice-president, Maryville; Virginia Lee Danford, secretary, Stanberry; Henry Robinson, treasurer, Kingston; and William Somerville, librarian, Maryville. These candidates were unanimously elected by the chorus.

Last Tuesday afternoon, the S. T. C. band elected the following officers: William Persons, president, Maryville; Robert Lawrence, vice-president, Maryville; John Liddle, secretary-treasurer, Maryville; Frederick Schneider, business and publicity manager, Stanberry; Maurice Chilcote, librarian, Bedford, Iowa; George Nixon, assistant librarian, Leon, Iowa; Herman S. Miller, drum major (already elected), Maryville.

College Y. M. C. A.

The College Y. M. C. A. held its initiation ceremonies in the Music room, Tuesday night, October 2nd. After the initiation Dr. Dildine gave a short speech about Y. M. C. A. fellowship activities throughout the world.

New members initiated are: Alex Sawyers, Maryville; William Barber, Skidmore; Wayne Harold, Cainsville; Daryl Wagoner, Gilman City; Harold Hunt, Maryville; Harry Irwin, Fairfax; Lee Headrick, Fairfax; Meredith Walker, Gravity, Iowa; Leonard Martin, Guilford; William Gould, Santa Rosa; Junior Lee, Winston; Buford Garner, Winston; Turner Tyson, Skidmore; Gory Wiggins, Princeton; Raymond Harris, Redding, Iowa; Harold Penwell, New Market, Iowa; Robert Irwin, Fairfax; Quinton Biggs, Guilford; Ted Tyson, Skidmore; Glen Williamson, Elmo; Earl Basset, Skidmore; Richard Thiesfield, Fairfax; and Everett Evans of Ridgeway.

Dance at "the Hall"

Residence Hall is sponsoring a Halloween Dance Saturday, Oct. 6, at 8:30. According to the general chairman, Inez Daniels, there are to be dance programs, cornstalks, pumpkins, and jack-o-lanterns to carry out the spirit of Halloween. The students of Doris Logan's dancing class will give a specialty dance. The entertainment committee is planning to have Mrs. Montgomery, who has been studying the art of fortune telling, reveal fortunes to those curious guests who desire to look into the future. Music for dancing will be by the new college orchestra, the Pep-er-cats. Tickets are fifty cents and may be obtained from Mary Francis Sutton, Francis Feurt, Betty Jane Smith, Dorothy DePew, or Laura Phebe Roseberry.

Contrary to current rumor, the dance is open to all students who wish to attend and the gentlemen of the campus have the privilege of extending the invitations.

It has been recently discovered that the Freshman class of the College High School has three sets of twins included in its enrollment. They are: Dorothy Daye and Doris Faye McGinnis, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McGinnis of Maryville; Erba Maxine and Erma Corine Thompson, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Thompson of Grant City; and Welburn Hill and Wilfred Dean Thompson, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Harve Thompson of Maryville.

campus by the numbers of students bearing that name who have come to college here from the North Dakota town; Sylvester and Catherine Keefe are both in school this year, and Bernard Keefe graduated in '33. Sylvester, a junior, is employed in the college library.

San Francisco is the place from "whence cometh" Faye Stone to go to college in the city where her uncle, Mr. Charles Hutchison, and aunt, Mrs. Tom Fisher, reside. Faye, a sophomore in rank, has had one year in San Mateo (California) Junior College.

Mr. Homer Richmond, Mr. Wilbur Cox, Mr. Ervin Gubser, graduates of N. W. M. S. T. C., now teaching in the high school at Hubbard, Ohio, have been instrumental in sending some mighty good football material to wear the green and white. Luke Palumbo and Robert Tracy both came here as a result of the influence of these men. Luke, a senior, aspires to be a coach and Tracy, being a junior, hasn't decided as yet just what he will do.

Russell and Charles Hurley of Secretary, Maryland, have been directly or indirectly responsible for more than one new student on the rolls of this college, among them being Margaret Winchester of Oxford, Pennsylvania, who is a music major. Peggy's sister, it seems, lives in the same town as does the Hurley boys' sister and it was through this rather indirect connection that Maryville was selected by the young lady from Oxford.

We owe the presence of Everett Richards in Maryville to Coach Davis, who found the "Goor-ga" athlete as a likely prospect for a S. T. C. football berth.

The most unusual addition to the enrollment list as regards distance of home from school is Frances E. Russell, who hails from distant Manila, in the Philippines. Frances attended the University of Kansas at Lawrence, the school from which her father graduated, for her first two years, and came to Maryville as a result of the connection with an uncle, J. J. Russell, who lives in Maryville. Frances has not been home for three years—ever since she was a beginning Sophomore. She is now a senior.

In addition to these more outstanding cases, there are the following who have come to Maryville from no little distance: Frankie M. Cockran, Robinson, Kan.; Edra Keplar, Hastings, Nebr.; Georgia Smith, Omaha, Nebr.; John Chiles, Chelsea, Okla.; Bernard Hamman, Rushville, Ill.; Buford Jones, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Orville Livingston, Greeley, Kan.; Maurice Sullivan, Harrisburg, Ill.; Elmo Wright, Oklahoma City, Okla.; George Zakoura, Osawatimie, Kan.

Choosing a Play

The Mask and Gavel club met in Social Hall, Thursday evening and chose a list of plays from which one will be selected for production.

A national vote was made on the four questions that were given out in assembly. The vote made by the students of this college was the same as the national vote. The leading question was:

"Munition." The nations should agree to prevent the international shipment of arms and munitions. Second choice was:

"Limited Incomes." The federal government should fix maximum limits to personal incomes and inheritances.

Last year the Pi Kappa Delta fraternity went to the national debate contest held in Lexington, Kentucky. A copy of all the winning speeches and debates may be had in Mr. Kelly's office.

a group of children of kindergarten and primary ages engaged in various school activities, while Miss Barbara Zellar explained the purpose and work of the Association of Childhood Education. Following this Alpha Phi Sigma, honor scholastic fraternity, was presented by Jonan Haskell and a group of students symbolizing the organization's ideals.

Humor was added to the program by Alpha Epsilon Psi's comic German band, which, according to the program, played Ach Du Lieber Augustine.

W. A. A. presented "The Balls of the Season," introduced by Nella Rose Hoffman. This sketch begins with a representation of a social ball and then reverts to the balls used in sports, illustrating the various activities and honors of the organization.

The Y. W. C. A. was represented by Jane Sandy, who gave its aim and activities, and a group of girls who formed the triangular symbol of the Y. W. C. A.

Mrs. Virgil Rathbun, president of the Maryville Chapter of the Association of University Women, introduced Marceline Cooper, 1934 winner of the A. A. U. W. Scholarship.

Joe Benson, winner of the Howard Leech Medal last year was presented to the assembly by Coach Wilbur Stalcup. Student president, Francis Sloniker, spoke briefly of the activities of the Student Senate and introduced each of its members to the student body. The program was concluded by a yell by the Barkatz echoed by the student body.

Annual Conference at Fulton.

The annual fall conference of the Young Women's and Young Men's Christian Associations is to be held in Fulton, on the Westminster and William Woods Campuses, on October 5th, 6th, and 7th.

This conference promises to be one of the best convocations ever held. Dr. Frank L. McCluer, a very noted speaker, will be present. The organizations hope to have Paul Harris come from Washington, D. C., to head the conference.

The conference will open with evening services on Friday, October 5th, at 7:30 o'clock on the Westminster Campus, and will adjourn on Sunday, October 7th, at 12 o'clock.

Many interesting things have been planned for the week-end. Commissions of Campus Problems, Cabinet Meetings, Freshman Orientation, and many other things all play an interesting part in the program. During the recess swimming, golf, tennis, picture shows, etc., are planned.

Fulton is located in the central part of the state, so traveling expenses will be low. The fee will be only $2, which will include room, board, and registration for the whole conference.

It is hoped that Maryville College will be represented at the Conference with delegates from the Y. W. and Y. M. organizations here.

Honorary Members Are Initiated.

The Gamma chapter of Sigma Mu Delta at a meeting at the home of Dr. R. C. Person on Wednesday, October 3, at 8 o'clock, held initiation for the following honorary members: Dr. R. C. Person, Mr. Hugh G. Wales, and Mr. Alphonse Gailiewicz. Dr. Person is the father of two of the members of the fraternity: William and Harold Person. Mr. Wales and Mr. Gailiewicz are both new members of the college faculty. Mr. Wales is a member of the Commerce Department, and Mr. Gailiewicz is instructor in Instrumental Music. At the same meeting formal initiation was held for Russell Shelton of Graham. Russell is a junior this year. In addition to the seven pledges announced by Sigma Mu Delta last week, the names of William Bills of Jameson and Russell Dowell of Maryville were put on the pledge list.

Carlson is Pledge Captain.

The regular meeting of the Theta Chapter of Sigma Tau Gamma was held at the chapter house on West Fourth street at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, October 3. At the meeting Arnold (Chub) Carlson was elected pledge captain.

Dancing Class Now is Organized.

The social dancing class, under the direction of Miss Stephenson and Miss Millett, is now organized and ready to begin work. The period for the classes to meet will be on Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 5:30 and on Wednesday evening from 7 to 8:30 o'clock. Practice periods will be held on Monday and Thursday from 4 to 5:30 o'clock.

The enrollment for Wednesday afternoon consists of twenty-nine girls and seventeen boys; for Wednesday evening forty-three girls and twenty-two boys; which makes a sum total of 111.

Dick Barrett, a last year's graduate, will manage the classes. Students participating in the teaching include: Erma Walker, Reese Streeter, Pat Dougan, Fritz Cronkite, Sue Brown, Frances Heurt, Dorothy DePew and Martha Venable.

All dancing classes will be conducted in Social Hall.

The Women's Athletic Association had its first party of the season Monday, October 1, at 5:30 o'clock. This party was held in the W. A. A. Hut in College Park. Miss Martindale, Miss Blanchard, Miss Blackwell, and nineteen members attended the party.

Refreshments of sandwiches, pickles, potato chips, fruit salad and cake were served. The entertainment committee had the party well organized. They divided those present into three groups, then each group presented a stunt.

Plans for making money for the organization were discussed and the members decided that the business meeting that is held once each month would be held in the Hut hereafter. In connection with these meetings there is to be a social hour.

Suggestions were made regarding the part the W. A. A. was to play in the Assembly program. After the party was over the members went to the Gymnasium to practice their parts in the stunt.

The W. A. A. members urge those who are interested in athletics and good times to meet with the organization on Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays of each week at 5:00 o'clock.

The other instructors are just as fair and as intelligent as the one mentioned. Of course each one has his particular quirks and traits that cannot be altered, but that is only part of his character. The other, and by far the major part, is made up of a real and intense desire to be of service to every student showing himself worthy of that consideration.

If a student has the courage and intelligence to stand firmly for his convictions, and the open-minded fairness to change them whenever better reasoning is advanced, he can look to every instructor as a friend and helper.

The Stroller

Lost in a Fog

Everyone knows that there was an exceedingly dense fog which made it difficult to see the Maryville Wesleyan game, but we did not know it was quite as bad as it was until certain spectators confessed that they did not know till the next morning that Maryville had won the game. Dr. Painter, upon hearing the confession, suggested that there are mental fogs as well as those caused by the weather.

Do you know the Freshman who said that Beowulf was a wild animal?

"It is a wise girl who knoweth her own boy friend". Yet, evidently, Louise didn't know Dean when he strolled up the walk to the dorm. for when someone said, "There comes Dean Miller", Louise responded scornfully, "No, it isn't; doesn't even walk like him."

Personal Mention

Otto Griessel of Odessa and Bernard Galbreath of Sedalia, friends of L. N. Bricken, Herman Fischer, and McDonald Egdorf, former students of the College, were at the College last Saturday for a brief visit. They enjoyed looking through the last few college yearbooks in the Information Office, checking up on their old friends. Mr. Griessel holds the Bachelor of Science Degree with a major in Engineering at the University of Missouri and was graduated with the Class of 1933.

Guy Cooper, former student of Northwest Missouri State Teachers College, visited last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cooper on West Second Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Myers and children of Maryville were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Lee at a lodge in the Ozarks. Mr. Myers represents the State Superintendent of Education in this section of the State.

Wayman Smith, who attended the College last year, spent a few days of this week visiting with friends at the College. Mr. Smith, whose home is at Bethany, has joined the U. S. Navy and will soon be in training at San Diego, California. As a member of the College Quartette, the a Capella Choir, the College Chorus, Band,

THE PRESIDENT SAYS—

EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

The assembly this week brought to the attention of the student most of the organizations and extra-curricular activities on the campus. All these contribute much to college life and to individual enjoyment. As a means of relaxation and self-expression they serve fine purpose. To let them take the place of hard, honest work in the classroom or in credit activities is harmful. To get the most from both—the most pleasure as well as the most profit—students should enter into the spirit of organization life and carry the enthusiasm gathered there into the less colorful—but more profitable—classroom activities.

The sunshine is the brightest
In college days;
Young hearts are always lightest
In college days;
The skies are ever bluest,
Our burdens are the fewest,
And friends are far the truest

In college days;
Our loyalty is proudest

Heads are quite the thickest,
Chiselers are the slickest,
And sleight-of-hand is quickest

All debtors are the blandest

Spoken English is the baddest,
And politics—the saddest,

Orchestra, and Sigma Mu Delta social fraternity, Mr. Smith became well known in school last year.

B. E. Lucas, B. S. '32, attended the Knights of the Hickory Stick's dinner last Friday night and visited the College Saturday morning, September 29.

E. W. Mounce, chairman of the Commerce and Business Administration Department of the College, on leave, and now in charge of Workers Education Program for the State of Missouri, was the speaker at the Men's Monday Forum, noon luncheon, at the Social Service Room of the M. E. Church South, last Monday.

The Alumni secretary has a letter from Mrs. J. M. Roach, formerly Lucile Holmes, B. S. '22, who now lives at 3316 Olive St., in Kansas City. Mrs. Roach sends her best wishes to S. T. C. one and all, teachers and friends, and adds that she hopes to see many former students and members of the College faculty at the State Teachers meeting in Kansas City. She included in her letter her Alumni dues for this year and will receive the Northwest Missourian.

Microscopic Mish-Mash---In Which An Amoeba Emerges Into the Spotlight

Just a minute till I get this microscope adjusted. Now for the specimen. Spotlight! He's hiding out somewhere downabouts and anon. No wonder, there are positively millions of square millimeters of territory on this glass slide. I've looked everywhere. Guess I'll have to apply the old drag-net principle of Scotland Yard. This is worse than the time I tried to locate my Aunt Sophronia in the Kansas City Union Station, but her red sox were at least some method of identification. Ah! At last. Here's an amoeba. Hold still a minute till I get a sketch so I can let Patou know where they're wearing the nuclei this season. It says in the manual to note cell division. Well, I'm waiting. So! Uh won't divvy up, eh? Wait 'til I tell President Roosevelt on you. Oh, oh, here comes another of your classification. I see you two have met before; you must get better acquainted. Oh, no? He's leaving you, my little one, without even shaking pseudopods. Let him know you're not angry—just hurt. Hey, you that's left, do something. You're wasting my time. I'm supposed to be watching your behavior. Don't be bashful—just anything will do. You might entertain me by encompassing something into your food vacuole. I see you'd rather investigate—you are just like some people I know—have the air of looking to see what's going on and not finding out. That's cute the way you can alter your shape at your convenience. If my protoplasm had that ability, what I could do with me! I also like the way those little projections appear and disappear, but you ought to see my cousin Ignatius throw his hip out of joint. You're moving away from me. Don't be self-conscious—I won't tell anybody that your contractile vacuole is a bit democratic—(I mean it's a mess), besides I want to finish this portrait. I'll give you a copy for the family album when I get it finished. You can paste it beside that picture of

Brown and Bird Star In Game at Savannah

The College All-Stars, a softball team consisting of intramural league players, defeated a Savannah team in a double-header played Sunday afternoon at the old fairgrounds. The Collegians romped away to a 9 to 1 victory in the first game, but encountered much difficulty in squeezing out 2 to 8 win in the second.

The scores by innings:

Russell Noblet, B. S. '33, formerly superintendent of schools at Conception Junction, and now working in the Adult Education Bureau in Jefferson City, was in Maryville last Saturday. Mr. Noblet paid his Alumni dues and will receive the Northwest Missourian to keep track of his friends here at the College. Mr. Noblet's address is 318 West McCarty St., Jefferson City.

Know Your Team

ARTHUR YATES

"Doc" is the first string kicker this season, and so a great deal of the burden of the team's success rests upon the shoulders of this sophomore back from Smithville. Yates has shown remarkable improvement over last season's work and bids fair to become a real star. He is a broken field runner of ability.

Yates is only eighteen years old, is 5 feet 11 inches tall, and weighs 165 pounds. In high school he lettered three years in football and two in basketball. He was a Little-Six Conference all-star in both sports. He was co-captain of the football team one year. Yates won his letter with the Bearcats last year.

THOMAS CROSSAN

"Bulldog" came to Maryville from Graceland College of Lamoni, Iowa, where he gained his letter in football last season. He plays either guard or tackle, is twenty years old, 5 feet 10 inches tall, and weighs 178 pounds. His aggressive spirit makes him a difficult man to play against.

Crossan's home is in Stewartsville where he attended high school. He lettered one year in baseball and participated in debate, dramatics, orchestra, and the quartet.

FRED DICKINSON

"Dick" looks to be the best end Maryville has seen since the days of "Pop" Hodge. He is big, aggressive, and has a thorough knowledge of the game. He is twenty-one years of age, weighs 182 pounds, and reaches to 6 feet 1½ inches in height. He has four years of eligibility left with the Bearcats.

After his graduation from William Chrisman High School in Independence where he made two letters in football and basketball, Dickinson attended Oklahoma University, where injuries prevented his competition. He entered school here last winter.

WES MARVICK

One of the most promising freshman backs on this year's squad is Wes Marvick, stocky blond lad from Villisca, Iowa. Marvick is twenty years old, weighs 155 pounds, and is only 5 feet 5 inches tall. He is a shifty runner and has lots of drive. Lately, he has been handicapped by a knee injury.

Marvick is a graduate of Villisca High School, where he earned four letters in football, two in basketball and one in baseball. He captained the football team his senior year. Wes was rated one of the best high school backs in Southwest Iowa.

MAURICE SULLIVAN

"Pete" is playing his fourth season as a Bearcat regular. He began his career for Maryville with the undefeated team of 1931, and has been causing the Bearcat foes a great deal of trouble ever since. No one has helped more to keep up the hustle on the team than has the colorful "Fighting Irish." Teams in the future will miss his continual chatter.

Sullivan claims Harrisburg, Illinois, for his home town. In that high school he made three letters in football, two in basketball, and one in track. He was football captain one year. Since coming to Maryville he has lettered three times in football. One year he was all-M. I. A. A. guard. The other two years he received honorable mention. "Pete" is twenty-three years old, is 5 feet 11 inches tall, and weighs 189 pounds.

Cape Freshmen Are Told How to Perform, In Screed Issued by Sophs

They're rough on the lowly frosh at Cape Girardeau State Teachers College, as is indicated from the following cross-bones-and-skull emanation from the college newspaper, the Cape Arrow:

Beware! Beware!
FRESHMEN!

Ye lowly scums of the earth, ye foul remnants of a discredited past, ye scourges of our beautiful campus, ye inferior misfits of '38:

Heed ye well the 13 commandments for your care, health and guidance, lest the exterior propensities of your anatomies be severely massaged.

1. First and foremost, let thyself forever recognize the noble Sophomores as your high and mighty lords, masters, superiors, and upperclassmen; treat them with the utmost respect; address them always as "Sir".

2. Let forever that symbol of your sublime insignificance, in consequence, and inferiority, the green cap, adorn your ignominious craniums.

3. Ye contemptible nonentities, always button when requested to do so by upperclassmen.

4. Let not the streets be contaminated with your evil presences after 7:30 on closed nights and 10:00 o'clock on open nights.

5. Associate not at any time with the weaker sex except at school social functions and Sunday nights.

6. Attend all football games and sit together at the front of the student section.

7. Learn ye for purposes of recitation the college songs and yells.

8. Learn and be able to repeat the names of all the presidents of this institution.

9. All neckties and garters are forbidden perpetually during your period of probation.

10. Always ye shall enter Academic Hall by the basement doors.

11. Ye shall never use the steps leading to the Auditorium for purposes other than entering the Auditorium.

12. Ye shall refrain from using all forms of tobacco whatsoever.

13. Puny punks of college, You're here to get some knowledge,

And while you're here,

You'll drink no beer,

Especially while we're near.

Chesterfields are milder
Chesterfields taste better

Ripe home-grown tobaccos

We begin with the right kinds of mild ripe Domestic tobaccos. Then we age and mellow them like rare wines for flavor and taste.

Aromatic Turkish tobaccos

Next we add just the right kinds and the right amounts of Turkish tobaccos to give Chesterfield the "seasoning" that helps to make them taste better.

Blended and cross-blended

Finally we "weld" these tobaccos together the Chesterfield way—different from any other—to make Chesterfield a milder better-tasting cigarette.
